

EMPORIUM

A sense of tradition

1 Made from Welsh sycamore, beech and ash, these hand-turned wooden spoons and ladles, from £80, are from online emporium Blodwen General Stores, which sells furniture and accessories from artisans across Wales (www.blodwen.com)

2 Llynfi Textile Co in Powys was the first company in the UK to produce organic dyed wool certified by the Soil Association. Choose from a range of colours from £3.45/25g (07773 036436; www.llynfitextiles.co.uk)

3 Sorbet Living's beautiful wallpaper (£40/10m) comes in floral pastels with a chalky finish that gives it a block-printed look (01243 818160; www.sorbetliving.com)

4 Make a colourful statement with one of Fleetwood Fox's flatweave stair carpets and runners, made to order on looms in Somerset. From £95/m from Tim Page Carpets (020 7259 7282; www.fleetwoodfox.com).

5 The spring collection from Lombok includes this Tridon task lamp, £80, which has a gleaming silver finish (0870 240 7380; www.lombok.co.uk)

6 Let Jasmine King transform your treasured keepsakes into doorstops or cushions. Each item is unique, made by hand to your individual specifications, from £20 (07946 644368; www.jkkeepsake.com)

7 South Devon-based furniture and kitchen manufacturer Tumble Home also makes smaller, Shaker-style accessories such as these peg rails (from £28), available in four colours or in unpainted beech or oak (01803 863024; www.tumble-home.com)

8 Lloyd Loom of Spalding has added six new colours to its woven furniture range, including Arctic Grey and this timeless Naples Green, shown on its Burghley chair, £399 (01775 712111; www.lloydloom.com)
