With this vacuum, you'll clean up big time

At just 4kg/8.9lb, the Oreck XL3 is a lightweight, upright vacuum cleaner that's easy to lift and manoeuvre, is furniture-friendly, big on capacity and low on energy use. It also has powerful direct suction and a superior-styled roller brush that digs out deeply embedded dirt and removes pet hair and dust mites with ease while restoring carpet pile. It comes with a three-year guarantee.

Oreck is offering Telegraph readers the chance to save £45 (savings include free delivery) off the XL3 upright. To find out more call 0800 0217 219 and quote TGBP102D or visit www.oreck.co.uk/TGBP102D. Offer ends February 28.

Good-looking desserts are a piece of cake

This elegant glass cake stand is a great way to bring a dash of vintage style to your afternoon tea or make a shop-bought pudding look that little bit more special. Available from Not On The High Street, it is currently reduced by 40 per cent, to £15 (originally £25). Visit www.notonthehighstreet.com.

A welcomed Hiccup

For a touch of chic and a sense of fun this Valentine's day, look no further than Hiccup Gifts, an online retailer specialising in design-led, novelty homeware products.

Exclusive to Telegraph readers, at only £69.99 (RRP £87.99, a saving of 20 per cent), this multi-coloured gypsy chandelier epitomises what Hiccup is about. With its Leitmotiv design, it has six arms with draping beads made from metal and resin and an adjustable ceiling chain means it's easily adaptable to suit your living room.
